

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

This valuable record was compiled in the reign of William the Conqueror, and is a survey of the kingdom. It consists of two volumes; one of which contains the counties of Essex, Norfolk, and Suffolk; the other comprises the remaining counties of England. The survey was begun in the year 1080, and specifies the quantity of arable land, pasture, meadow and wood every man possessed; their extent and value in the time of Edward the Confessor, and at the time of making the survey; together with the number of mills and fisheries, and in some counties the number of freemen, villeins, cattle, &c. &c. in every town and manor, and the names of their proprietors.

By the direction of the house of lords, this valuable document has been made public. It was transcribed from the original, and most accurately revised through the press by Abr. Farley, esq. It is printed with types in imitation of the original.

An index to this important national work is deposited in the Chapter house, and is now printed under the direction of the record commission. It comprehends a double index, viz. I. An index in order of the counties.—II. A general index or abstract of the record.—Vide PUBLIC RECORDS, Class IX.

237. STATUTES.

The public acts of parliament are printed immediately they receive the royal assent, and are presumed by the law to be known to every individual. Each act is numbered or chaptered in the order in which it is printed, and each year or session has a new series of numbers or chapters. There are three descriptions of acts of parliament; and three distinct series of numbers or chapters respectively in each year or session. All the acts which are of a public and general nature are classed by themselves, and are denominated "Public Acts;" to which belong the first series of numbers or chapters in each year. The acts which are of a public nature, but limited in their operations, such as relate to turnpike roads, &c. are denominated "Local Acts;" to which belong the second series of numbers or chapters. The third class of acts consists of such as are of a private or personal nature, and relate to inclosures of common lands, family estates, naturalization, dissolution of marriages, &c.; these have also a distinct series of numbers or chapters each year, and are called "Private Acts."

Every act of parliament is sold singly by the publisher of this catalogue.

The public general acts have been at different periods, and by various editors, collected, and published under the title of "THE STATUTES AT LARGE." The most modern editions of the Statutes at large, are the four which were published by Mr. Danby Pickering, Mr. Owen Ruffhead, Mr. Serj. Runnington, and by Sir T. E. Tomlins and J. Raithby, esq., and by the Record Commission, for particulars of which vide Class IX.

1. CALENDARIUM Rotulorum patentium in turri Londinensi, folio. 15s.

Is a calendar of the principal entries on the patent rolls, which contain grants of offices, honours and lands; confirmations of grants to bodies corporate; restitutions of temporalities to bishops, abbots, and other ecclesiastical persons; commissions under the great seal, &c. from 3 John, 1201, to 23 Edw. IV. 1483.

2. CALENDARIUM Rotulorum Chartarum, et Inquisitionum ad quod damnum, folio. 18s.

The first part of this volume is a calendar to the charter rolls in the Tower, from 1 John, 1199, to 23 Edw. IV. 1483. They contain royal grants of privileges to cities, towns and corporations; grants of markets, fairs and free warrens; together with creations of nobility from the reign of Edw. II.; grants to religious houses, &c. The inquisitions Ad quod Damnum, to which the second part of the volume is a calendar, extend from 1 Edw. II. 1207, to 28 Hen. VI. 1450, and were taken when any market, fair, or other peculiar privilege was solicited, to inquire by a jury whether such grant would be injurious to the crown or to others.

3. CALENDARIUM Inquisitionum post mortem, 4 vols. folio. 4l. 7s.

Are calendars to the inquisitions, sometimes called escheats, which were taken on the deaths of individuals, to inquire of what lands they died seised, by what services they were held, whether they were attainted of treason or aliens, and the name and age of their heirs; and they are the best evidence which is extant of the descent of families and property. The calendars are arranged chronologically, and extend from 3 Hen. III. 1218, to Ric. III.

7, Fleet Street.]

4. CALENDARS of the proceedings in Chancery in the reign of Eliz.; to which are prefixed, examples of earlier proceedings in that court, namely, from the reign of Rich. II. to that of Eliz. inclusive. From the originals in the Tower, 3 vols. folio. 3*l.* 12*s.*

These calendars contain the names of the plaintiffs and defendants, the objects of the suit; the premises, and the county in which the lands were situated; and are arranged in alphabetical order under the names of the plaintiffs. The specimens of earlier Chancery proceedings prefixed to these volumes present most valuable information on the state of society, the manners and customs, language, family connections, and, in short, on every point of interest to the antiquary and historian in the fourteenth, fifteenth, sixteenth and seventeenth centuries.

5. CATALOGUE of the Cottonian MSS. folio. 12*s.*
 6. CATALOGUE of the Harleian MSS. 4 vols. folio. 3*l.* 3*s.*

These volumes are extensive indexes to the different collections of manuscripts in the British Museum; and when the importance of the manuscripts in question is considered, as materials for history, biography, topography, and indeed for every branch of literature, these catalogues must be deemed an invaluable acquisition to the library of persons who are desirous of acquiring authentic information.

8. CLOSE Rolls. Rotuli literarium clausarum, in turri Londinensi asservati, vol. 1, ab anno 1204 ad annum 1224, accurante T. D. Hardy, S.A.S. folio. 5*l.* 5*s.*

15. DOMESDAY Book (a general Introduction to), accompanied by indexes of the tenants in chief, under tenants at the time of the survey, as well as holders of lands mentioned in Domesday anterior to the formation of that record, with an abstract of the population. Illustrated by numerous notes and comments. By Sir H. Ellis, R.H. F.R.S. 2 vols. 8vo. 1l. 10s.

This, the most ancient record in the kingdom, is the register from which judgment was to be given upon the value, tenure and services of the lands therein described, and was made in consequence of a survey ordered by the Conqueror, and completed in 1086. The Exeter domesday book relates to the five western counties. The inquisitio Eliensis is confined to the property of the monastery of Ely. The liber Winton, or Winton domesday book, was a survey ordered by Hen. I. to ascertain what lands were held by Edward the Confessor in Winchester, and was taken between the years 1107 and 1128. The Boldon book, or survey of the palatinate of Durham, was made in 1183, and contains an account of the lands and seigniorial rights of the bishops of Durham, of the ancient tenures, customs, manners and services; it also affords some highly curious information relative to the manners and habits of the twelfth century, amusements, diet, coin, price of labour, &c. and is valuable as a supplement to Domesday book, as materials for a history of Durham, and for exhibiting a general picture of the customs of the time.

16. DUCATUS Lancastriæ. Calendarium inquisit. post mortem. A calendar to the pleadings, &c. 4 vols. fol. 4l. 4s.

The inquisitions, to which the first part is a calendar, relate solely to the duchy of Lancaster, and embrace precisely the same objects as the calendars of the Inquisitions post mortem, before described. They commence 1 Hen. V. and end 18 Cha. I. 1413 to 1612. The pleadings, to which the second, third, and fourth parts are calendars, consist of bills, answers and depositions of surveys in suits exhibited in the duchy court from 1 Hen. VII. 1485, to the present time; but the calendars extend to the reign of Elizabeth.

20. NONARUM inquisitiones in curia Scaccarii temp. Edw. III. folio. 18s.

Are the inquisitions taken by the assessors and vendors in twenty-seven counties, pursuant to the third commission, dated Jan. 20, 1341, to levy the ninth lamb, the ninth fleece, and the ninth sheaf, granted to the king by stat. 14 Edw. III.

21. PARLIAMENTARY Writs, and writs of military summons; together with the records and memorials relating to the suit and service due and performed to the king's high court of parliament and the councils of the realm, or affording evidence of attendance given at parliaments and councils. Collected and edited by sir Francis Palgrave, F.R.S. & F.S.A. of the Middle Temple, barrister at law, vol. 1, and vol. 2 (in 2 parts), folio. 4*l.* 4*s.*

This valuable collection of parliamentary writs commences only with the accession of Edw. I., and the present volume terminates with that reign. These writs consist of—1. Writs of summons addressed to the prelates, the earls, and to the individuals generally designated as "barones," "proceres" or "magnates," and also to the justices, clerks, and others of the council. 2. Proxies of the prelates, earls and "proceres." Of these only about fifty, chiefly of the reign of Edw. II., have been preserved, and which will appear in their proper order in the next volume. 3. Precepts and mandates issued by prelates, pursuant to the præmunientes clause in the writs of summons requiring the attendance of the inferior clergy; and procurations executed by the capitular and parochial clergy, pursuant to such precepts. 4. Writs for the election of the members of the commons house of parliament, and returns. 5. Writs for levying the expenses of the knights, citizens and burgesses. 6. Writs of military summons, specially addressed to individuals usually considered as the greater or lesser barons of the realm. 7. Writs for the performance of military service, or relating thereto; addressed to sheriffs. 8. Commissions of array, and other instruments relating to military levies. 9. Records affording evidence of the individuals who actually attended parliaments or councils. 10. Records affording evidence of the actual performance of military service.

The appendix consists of—1. Records, showing the rank and condition of the individuals composing the parliament. 2. Records relating to elections of coroners, verdurers, &c. in the county courts. 3. Records relating to the customs and institutions of boroughs. The two last mentioned are to appear in a future volume.

A comprehensive alphabetical digest and index complete the volume, which, whether in relation to the light which is thrown upon the early history of the legislature of this country, the manner in which its armies were formed, or as materials for the biography of distinguished individuals, from the middle of the thirteenth to the commencement of the fourteenth century, its contents are important to the historian, and highly interesting to the antiquary.

22. PLACITA de quo warranto, temp. Edw. I. II. & III. in curia Receptæ Scaccarii Westm. asservata, folio. 18*s.*

Are quo warrantos, arising from the commission issued 11th October, 1274, and contain accounts of the boundaries of chases, free warrens, and fisheries; also many royal charters, both to ecclesiastical and lay corporations, not elsewhere recorded. The descents of manors and advowsons are frequently exhibited; and much valuable information illustrative of the laws and customs of this country will be found throughout the work.

"This work has long been considered one of the very best on the old law, and has evidently furnished many valuable suggestions to subsequent writers. In its present improved state it constitutes a complete summary of the law and practice of elections, including the result of the decisions down to the period of publication; and being written in a clear, perspicuous style, with a thorough knowledge of all the bearings of the subject, bids fair to throw all other commentators on the reform bill into the shade."—Law Magazine, 1836.
